Christopher M. Conabee was elected as a Vice President on the Board of Trustees of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity in August 2011. He is serving a three-year term on the ten-member board, which guides the activities of more than 7,000 undergraduate members on 122 campuses in the U.S. and Canada, as well as some 123,000 alumni members of the 171-year-old Fraternity.

Conabee is managing director of corporate recruitment and business services for the governor of Utah's office of economic development. After spending several years as a real estate developer and 10 years between New York and Utah as a business executive in the financial services industry, Chris brings a keen insight into the specific expansion and growth challenges that organizations and business leaders are facing today.

Conabee joined Beta Theta Pi in 1985 as a member of the Gamma Beta Chapter at the University of Utah. He served as pledge education advisor for his chapter, then as Chief of District 35.

Conabee lives in Park City, Utah, with his wife Vanessa and three children.
