

WHERE DO I START?

Matt Brawner, Truman State '07

3 responsibilities of a District Chief

Advisory team
development

Ambassador

Standards
Implementation

Advisory team
development

Ambassador

Standards
Implementation

Ambassador

- Serve as the key constituent contact in the region
- Attend and promote General Fraternity programming
- Champion the principles and obligations

Advisory team
development

Ambassador

Standards
Implementation

Standards Implementation

- Driving the fraternity's initiatives at the chapter level
 - Conduct status/directive reviews
 - Understand and educate on standards/policies
 - Quickly and appropriately respond to risk management concerns

Advisory team
development

Ambassador

Standards
Implementati on

Advisory Team Development

- Advisor recruitment and replacement
- Blending challenge and support

The Wooglin University chapter of Beta Theta Pi does not have a recruitment advisor. The district chief decides to call the director of student affairs to solicit the names of potential advisors.

Scenario 1

- Please use your laptops to research the following:
 - Advisor recruitment tips
 - Job description for the recruitment advisor

Before you begin!

- Placing a recruitment advisor provides support for both the chapter and the advisory team
- To the Greek advisor, the chief is the face of the General fraternity
- Maintaining a full advisory team is a standard for all chapters and colonies

In Review

The Kai chapter of Beta Theta Pi has an unsatisfactory risk management rating because they have not hosted an alcohol education seminar or had a fire inspection for the chapter house. To address the problem the district chief calls the risk management advisor.

Scenario 2

- Please use your laptops to:
 - Access the chapter information page to research the contact information for the house corporation president and e-mail him a reminder to have the house inspected.
 - E-mail the Greek advisor to inquire about alcohol awareness presentations - matt.brawner@betathetapi.org

Before you begin!

- matt.brawner@betathetapi.org

- Maintaining at least a “satisfactory” rating is a standard for all Beta chapters and colonies
- Even with e-mail, the chief is the face of the General Fraternity to the Greek advisor and house corporation president
- By soliciting ideas for presentations and contacting the house corporation, the DC is providing support to the risk management advisor

In Review

The Oxford colony of Beta Theta Pi is in the process of developing their pledge program for their very first pledge class. The district chief has decided to call the pledge education advisor and review the model pledge program with him.

Scenario 3

- Please use your laptops to:
 - Research the model pledge program on the Beta website
 - Review the guidelines for pledge program certification
 - E-mail the colony educator to obtain a progress update

Before you begin!

- By reviewing the model the pledge program with the advisor, the chief is providing support
- Even when interacting with an advisor, the chief serves as the face of the General Fraternity
- Pledge program certification is a standard for all Beta chapters and colonies

In Review

- Every aspect of the chief's job will involve all three of the expectations
- The resources you have include the Administrative Office staff...utilize them!

Bringing it home...